G2 900um Splice Cassettes End of Life (Update)

The G2 900um Splice Cassettes will become obsolete and replaced with the 250um option. This change has been requested by customers through the Account Managers and FAE's.

- The EOL effective date has been extended to January 31, 2026. No orders will be accepted after this date.
- As MID stock is used up any new demands will be rolled over to the new 250um replacement.
- All G2 900um Cassette's product will be discontinued. The list below may not show all part numbers
